Edit Quiz - June 1 - Part 2
You've read so many of these edits over the course of this semester that you should know what they look like. Now it's your turn to write one! Your task is to write a paragraph about a topic of your choice (school appropriate, of course) and come up with two versions – one that has NO mistakes (none. Not even one! You'll lose marks if I catch one!) and another that has 10 mistakes (and only 10! Again, you'll lose marks if there aren't 10 or if there are more!) Make sure that you circle or highlight your mistakes, and make sure that you write neatly! My edits paragraphs are almost always approximately 100 words (102-106 or so, more precisely.)
